

OLIVER SCHOLARS GALA

2018 HONOREE
CARMINE DI SIBIO

Carmine Di Sibio is EY's Global Managing Partner – Client Service and a member of the Global Executive. EY is a leading global professional services organization that provides assurance, tax, transaction and advisory services. With nearly 250,000 people in more than 150 countries and more than US$31b in revenues, EY is one of the largest professional services organizations in the world. EY is committed to its purpose of Building a better working world — with increased trust and confidence in business, sustainable growth, development of talent in all its forms, and greater collaboration.

In his current role, Carmine is responsible for global business performance, the day-to-day operations of EY and executing a global strategy in the market. He brings together geographies, service lines and market functions to provide exceptional service to our clients. Carmine is also the senior advisory partner for many of EY's largest financial services clients.

He recognizes that to be a forward-thinking organization in today's environment, you have to look at disruption as a business imperative. He created EY's Global Innovation Team, which explores applications for new technologies, including robotic process automation, blockchain, artificial intelligence and data analytics; and works across the entire organization to encourage innovation at all levels. Carmine has been a strong proponent of both investing in a diverse talent pool pairing traditional and non-traditional skill sets, along with developing a vibrant network of external alliances.

Carmine serves as the co-chair of EY's Global Diversity and Inclusiveness Steering Committee, which sets the frameworks and initiatives to build the highest-performing teams in the profession, maximizing the power of different opinions, perspectives and cultural references. EY's focus on diversity and inclusiveness is integral to how we serve our clients, develop our people and play a leadership role in our communities.

EY is widely recognized for its culture and as a global diversity and inclusiveness leader. The organization is currently #1 on US-based DiversityInc's Top 50 Companies for Diversity list, and is also #1 on a number of DiversityInc's specialty lists including 'Top Companies for Global Diversity', 'Top Companies for Executive Women', 'Top Companies for Diversity Councils' and 'Top Companies for People with Disabilities'. In addition, among other accolades, EY was recently honored by Women in Leadership in Latin America, is one of Working Mother's 100 Best Companies for Women in India, is ranked by Universum as one of the most attractive employers in the world, and was named one of the 25 Best Multinational workplaces by The Great Place To Work® Institute in 2017.

Carmine is affiliated with certain nonprofit organizations including as a board member of the Foundation for Empowering Citizens with Autism and Family Promise. He also serves on the Alumni Council for Colgate University.

Carmine has a BA in Chemistry with a minor in Economics from Colgate University. He has an MBA from New York University's Stern School of Business. He is a practicing CPA in the states of New York, New Jersey and Massachusetts.

